PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING, BY A. S. ABLE & CO., FROM THE "SUN IRON BUILDING," At the S. E. corner of Baltimore and South sts.

Terms Cash in Advance:

For One Copy for Six Months or less	$1 00
For One Copy for One Year	1 50

THE WEEKLY SUN will renew its best efforts as a first-class News and Literary Journal. Every improvement of modern journalism—by which it is distinguished—will be maintained, and such attention be given to its several departments as will insure their continued interest, and whatever may be necessary to render them more complete will not be lost sight of.

Through no other medium can families and individuals in the towns and villages and rural districts of the country be so well supplied with proper literature, and a full knowledge of the world's whole news, from week to week.

MAKE UP CLUBS.

While the WEEKLY SUN is afforded at the low rate of $1 50 per annum to single subscribers, the CLUB rates are still lower, carrying the price down as low as one dollar per year where twenty-five copies or more are taken at one post office at a time, viz:

Club of Six Copies, One Year	$8 00
Club of Twelve Copies, One Year	15 00
Club of Fifteen Copies, One Year	18 00
Club of Twenty Copies, One Year	22 00
Club of Twenty-five Copies, One Year	25 00
Club of Thirty-five Copies, One Year	35 00

Parties, then, should get up CLUBS in their towns, villages and neighborhoods, and thus secure the advantage of these very low rates. Any postmaster or storekeeper in the county may easily accomplish this among his acquaintances, or any active person, male or female, do the same. The regular diffusion of the light and intelligence which such a journal affords will be a moral and social advantage in any neighborhood.

To those parties getting up clubs for the Weekly Sun, sent to one post office, we will mail hereafter to the address of any one sending us

TO CONSUMPTIVES.—The Advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge,) with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, etc. The object of the advertiser in sending the Prescription is to benefit the afflicted and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable; and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.

Parties wishing the prescription, will please address REV EDWARD A. WILSON, Williamsburg, Kings County, New York. may14y1

ERRORS OF YOUTH.—A gentleman who suffered for years from Nervous Debility Premature Decay, and all the effects of youthful indiscretion, will, for the sake of suffering humanity, send free to all who need it, the receipt and directions for making the simple remedy by which he was cured. Sufferers wishing to profit by the advertiser's experience, can do so by addressing in perfect confidence, JOHN B. OGDEN, No. 42 Cedar street, New York may14y1

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint, and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver, and put it to work: then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens in the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and get, well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivalled success in the treatment of pulmonary consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe, a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall-bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care), that will unlock the gall-bladder and starts the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the Alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing he derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills, or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catuarh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has Consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abscesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood: then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

When there is no lung disease, and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all bilious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparations with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompanying each, make it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr Schenck, unless the patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond Street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover Street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1 50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half-dozen Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists.

MARRIED BY TELEGRAPH.

'Mr. Leary, are you a married man?'

'Very, sir.'

'Very, Why do you say very?'

'Because my dear little wife and I are bound together by wiers.'

'Latimer Leary, you talk enigmas.'

'Then sir, to be plain as a primer, I will inform you that I was married by telegraph.'

'You don't say!'

'Yes, I do.'

'Then tell the company all about it.'

'I will, with pleasure. Ladies and gentlemen, my wife is a second cousin, and is also a Leary. She once resided in the city of Indianopolis while I was a resident of Centreville, in the same state. I was a bachelor of thirty but full of romance and general love because I had not made a concentration.

'Why don't you take a wife?' was continually buzzing in my ears.—'Whom will I take?' To this query a score of friends would say—'Your relative, Kate Leary.

'Kate Leary? Why she is my cousin!'

'Only a second cousin,' they would retort 'and your opposite, Latimer—Kate is a blonde and you are as dark as Erebus or the ace of clubs.'

'I had never seen Miss Leary, but this continual association of the young lady with my wedded life had an influence.

'One day a member of Congress exclaimed:—

'Mr. Leary, were I single, I would assuredly pay court to your magnificent cousin. As I am married, and you are my best friend, I earnestly hope you will possess the luxury.'

'At this period I was a merchant.—Having discharged a thieving clerk, I was so confined to my store that a journey to Indianopolis was out of the question. I was growing wild to see one whom all praised and so many wished me to wed.

'In a few days from the call of my legislative friend, his brother, a noted judge, appeared at my store. The judge was also my devoted ally, a position intensified by his recollection of being educated by my deceased father. 'Drawing a daguerreotype from his coat, said he, 'I wish to show you something nice. There, what do you say to that?'

'This, my dear friend, is Miss Kate Leary, the lady I wished you to marry.'

'Tell me,' exclaimed I, 'is she—is she all they claim for her?'

'My dear friend, honestly as I value truth, I have not heard her sufficiently praised.'

'Why don't some man try his luck?'

'I am glad you asked. Simply because she is over-courted, and consequently hard to please. She is romantic, and, you see clearly, not winnable by ordinary methods.'

'You say she is very particular?'

'She is, sir.'

'Then good-bye for me.'

'Not at all; she is rapturous over your likeness, and sends her cousinly love with an invitation to visit her.—I pledge you I omitted not a single good point in your body, calibre or character.'

'So you consider her daguerreotype accurate!'

'I can tell you it don't flatter her. She has extraordinary beauty, and the kind that is more stricking in animation or conversation.'

'While mutual friends in Centreville were lauding my fair cousin, mutual friends in Indianopolis were loud in their eulogies of me and preparing her mind for an alliance.

'I am not self-conceited. But believing such concord to be born an oblivous fact, I settled on the idea of marrying this wonder in beauty, soul and accomplishment.

'My intent was quickly confirmed upon hearing that a very wealthy and influential banker from Gotham was in the melting mood. I remember it was at midnight. I hinted from my store the last batch of chronic loungers, and selected the best stationary in my establishment. I was to write my first letter to Kate.

'From all that had passed a fine style was easy. I always flattered myself on my syntax, and will unegotistically affirm that my missive was at once tender, audacious, dignified, wild and intense. It struck her like an electric shock. The banker was laughed out of competition, and your humble servant was master of the situation.

'Such a reply as I received! Well—you must see—you shall see it. I have good gas works but I am inadequate. In a brief time we learned that each knew the other will. The much said by so many mutuals, superadded to our daguerreotypes and letters, made us a comprehending couple; in fact, we confessed our love—a full, round, ripe and luscious article. There could be no unsafety in the case. Our lineage was common and every fact known. What followed is clear—an engagement!—yes, between unseen lovers and cousins.

'I was 'dying' to fold her to my heart, but my solus condition and maturing appointments postponed it indefinately.

'What did you say? Why didn't she visit one of our friends at Centreville? I answer you cheerfully. She was an oddity. She had her notions and would entertain them. Tho' we were plighted, she declared it should not be said that she made the first visit. Many believed she was right. I don't argue the point merely answer a question.

'Weeks passed, letters were numerous and copiously saccharine. The time arrived when I could tear my single condition no longer. What if some one were to cut me out at the eleventh hour? With such a love, what would become of me? I was determined to own her, even if I did not see her in a decade.

'An idea dawned—a brilliant one.—It was to compass a speedy marriage, and satisfy her thirst for romance. After a flood of tenderness by way of dramatic peroration, I wrote: '——, my adorned one, let us depart from the stale routine, and wed by telegraph.'

'The idea took her by storm. Her answer was characteristic. It ran thus: 'Darling, I will. The idea is savory, but is it legal?'

'Immediately I sent for my friend, the judge. Soon he faced me; said I, 'Judge, is a marriage by telegraph legal?'

'Certainly, sir: I see no objection to a contract by telegraph. I readily perceive how all the aquirements can be accomplished.'

'Will you state this opinion on paper and prescribe a formula for an electric wedding?'

'With pleasure, sir.'

'The judge understood me, and gladly complied. The result I forwarded to Kate by return mail, and soon received word that on the following Thursday she and proper authority would present themselves at the Indianopolis office according to said formula, there to enter upon the holy state of matrimony.

'I tell you the appointed hour was a great one among the mutual friends at each end of the wire. The affair was so novel, that all else was eclipsed by the contemplation of it.

'Clergymen and witnesses assembled at the termini. Their, in full costume, two unseen lovers were to be made man and wife. The instrument began its tick, tick, ticking. The operator read, clergyman put questions, I answered, the instrument did more work, and soon a I was saluted as the husband of Kate Leary. Happy was I, though the possessor of a lady I never beheld.

'One week passed, and I was still without help. My brain was becoming phrenzied; I must see Kate, and I must go to her first, for it was her fiat and well did I know what a Leary was.

'By entreaty, I prevailed upon a brother merchant to lend me his clerk. Soon as he put his foot in the door, I put mine in a stage en route for the capital of Indiana.

'When about twelve miles from the city, we stopped for a passenger. It was a young lady. Such a being I never beheld. She resembled my likeness of Kate, but was far more beautiful. I own my heart went out to her. Call me fickle, say what you please, and I will bear it. I repeat, my heart gushed forth in a flood of love.

'Here was a fix! I, a married man going to see his telegraphed bride, and as telegraphically in love with another woman. I began to repent my haste and when too late, saw the crime of marrying a woman I had never set my eyes upon. What would I do? What could I do? The lady was already married, for I heard the driver call her madam.

'How she eyed me! I spoke about the coach window being raised to suit her. She thanked me in tones that acted like an arterial stimulant. I was gone. Much conversation followed, and I was a goner. I saw she was giving me sweet, yet pleading looks.—Heavens! thought I, she is unhappily mated. Suppose I give her my sympathy. Yet should I jeopardize myself bofore such transcendent charms? Suppose I betray my love, how would I feel when in the presence of my wife, and what power would I confer on a total stranger? I had it. I would betray nothing but would offer consolation to a flower most neglected. We were the only passengers and what a good chance.

'Madam,' said I, 'please pardon me, but you seem to exist under a cloud.'

'She sighed deeply.

'May I ask if you are a widow?'

'Well sir, not a widow, though I do not live with my husband.'

'Poor soul!' continued I.

'She put her handkerchief into her mouth. I thought about half of it went in; but of course it was to stop her emotion.

'You are not happy, madam?'

'Very far from it, sir; I am miserable.'

'So was I—miserable to put my arms about her neck.

'Where do you reside, madam?'

'In Indianapolis.'

'Have you friends there?'

'Many, sir.'

'No doubt of it. Allow me to ask, do you like your husband?'

'Devotedly, sir.'

'Then why do you not live with him?'

'Would be glad of the chance, sir.'

'When did you see him last.'

'I have never seen him, sir.'

'Here she again half swallowed the handkerchief.'

'Never seen him, Why what do you mean?'

'Sir, have you not read of a telegraphic wedding.

'Julius Cæsar!' cried I. Tell me, are you Mrs. Kate Leary?'

'I am!'

'Then fall over here! And I took her to my bosom convulsively.'

"As I relaxed, she said: 'Go on Latimer, I knew you from your daguerreotype.'

'I will not prolong this, but merely remark that Kate is my next to the Great One above. I have never felt ashamed of my inconsistency, and would not lose her for the wealth of the Orient. I ever consider us as bound together by wire; and when asked if I am a married man, I always feel like saying—very.

Nothing like a balance. The girl's now tip their hats clear forward, which offsets the Grecian angle behind.

IN THE WRONG PLACE.

Several times incidents have been related of gentlemen, under the influence of liquor or from absent-mindedness, getting into the wrong house. An incident, however, occurred a short time ago in the Crecent City, which came near ending in a tragedy. A gentleman, being late home and a little confused by some mercantile speculation, applied his latch-key to the wrong door and found himself in his neighbor's house.

'Who's there?' was fiercely demanded of him from the head of the stairs.

'Who the mischief are you?' was the wondering reply.

'Get out of here, or I'll shoot!' was the next salutation.

'Well, on my word, that's cool!' soliloquized the merchant.

'Cool or not, you'd better leave!'

'I think I will!' thought the merchant as he slammed the door to and went after a policeman. Returning with an officer, he hit the right door and got into his own residence. But, strange to say, no intruder could be found, and no challenge met his advance. High and low the house was searched. No one or the appearance of any one could be discovered.—His wife was awakened and protested she had heard no one.

'You did not hear a man screaming at me from the head of these stairs a moment ago! Have you been long asleep?'

'Only for a moment.'

'And you say again you heard no one?'

'No one, my dear.'

'Didn't you hear a man shouting as if he'd waken the dead and threaten to shoot me?'

'Oh, mercy no!' exclaimed the good lady now really alarmed.

'Why, mum, I heard him in the street,' interposed the officer.

'Oh, William, he wasn't here,' cried the lady.

The citizen was non-plussed. What could it mean?

'Betsy,' he said, 'I've lived with you for forty years; you have been faithful in poverty and riches, and I can't think you have commenced deceiving me at this late day; but deceit or truth, you may shoot me if there wasn't a man in this house.'

There was energy in every word of the sturdy citizen, and he believed it as he did his religion. His neighbor being on the "quivive' from the late disturbance, was listening to the loud voices, and just at this instance came out on the adjoining gallery. He heard the last words and being greatly excited himself, replied with equal energy:

'Yes, and blame me, if I didn't just find one in my house!'

'What, in your house?'

'Yes; but when I threatened to shoot the fellow ran.'

Explanations now ensued, and the difficulty finally adjusted. This strange mistake was accounted for, and the reconciled neighbors shook hands and went to bed.

PUT THAT RASCAL OUT.—While the congregation were collected at church, on a certain occasion, an old hard-featured, skin and bone individual was wending his way up the aisle, and taking a seat near the pulpit. The officiating minister was one of that class who detested written sermons, and as for prayers he thought they ought to be natural outpourings of the heart. After the singing was concluded, they were as usual called to prayer. The genius we have introduced did not kneel, but leaned his head devotionally upon the pew. The minister began by saying:

'Father of all, in every age by saint and savage adored—'

'Pope!' said a low but clear voice near old hard-features.

The minister after casting an indignant look in the direction of the voice, continued:

'Whose throne sitteth on the adamantine hill of para ise—'

'Milton!' again interrupted the voice.

The minister's lip quivered for a moment, but recovering himself he began:

'We thank Thee, most gracious Father, that we are permitted once more to assemble in Thy name, while others, equally meritorious, but less favored, have been carried beyond that bourne from which no traveler returns——'

'Shakspeare!' again interrupted the voice.

This was too much. 'Put that impudent rascal out,' shouted the exasperated minister.

'Original!' ejaculated the voice in the same calm, provoking manner.

There is nothing, says the Somerset Democrat, that is so well calculated to demoralize boys as idleness; and parents, no matter what their circumstances may be, should keep their sons employed, at something useful and beneficial, if they desire them to grow up useful and respectable men. In order to illustrate what we mean, we refer to a circumstance that occurred in Cumberland, Md., a short time ago. Six young men of respectable parentage, were arrested charged with burglary and robbery, and after a hearing before the Mayor were bound over to appear at the next term of the Quarter Sessions Court. Four of these young men are not only of respectable but also of wealthy parentage, and worse than all, one of them is the son of a minister.

These boys were raised in idleness, which is the mother of dissipation, by over-indulgent parents, and having nothing else to do, they frequented drinking saloons and gambling dens of that city until, step by step from one degree of vice and crime to another we find them at last before the tribunal of justice to answer to the serious charge of burglary and robbery.

How true in this case the couplet—

"Satan finds some mischief still
For idle hands to do."

HOUSE AND FARM.

Facts in Agriculture.—All permanent improvements of land look to lime for their basis.

Periodical applications of ashes tend to keep up the integrity of the soil.

All grain crops should be harvested before perfectly ripe.

To manure or lime wet land is to throw manure, lime and labor away.

Clover as well as grasses intended for hay, should be mowed when in bloom.

Shallow plowing operates to impoverish the soil, while it decreases in production.

Punctuality in engagements is as necessary to the agriculturist as it is to a merchant.

Deep plowing greatly improves the productive powers of every variety of soil that is not wet.

Subsoiling sound land that is not wet, is eminently conducive to an increased production.

Always provide an equivalent for the substances carried off the land to the products grown thereon.

The chopping or grinding of grain to be fed to stock, operates as a saving of at least 25 per cent.

A bushel of plaster per acre, sown broadcast over clover, will add one hundred per cent. to its produce.

Full complements of tools and implements of husbandry are intimately connected with the success of the husbandman.

Early Vegetables.—In the neighborhood of large cities any quantity of early plants may be secured at the gardeners' who raise them under glass, in frames or in hot houses; but even with these facilities, we prefer plants that we have reared ourselves, to those which we can buy, not so much on the score of economy (though that is something) as on account of the fact that we find those which we have reared a good deal more hardy, and because we somehow find greater satisfaction in helping ourselves. Every one knows that vegetables which mature a few weeks earlier than the usual season are more highly prized than three or four times the quantity would be when they are no longer scarce. It is very easy to secure a supply, if one will take a little pains. An old window sash, a box two or three feet square, filled with fresh horse dung, leaf mould and rich, light earth, such as decayed sod, which is the very best, will furnish all the appliances necessary, for raising cabbage, tomatoes and egg plants enough to furnish a garden of moderate dimensions. If it is desired to raise a few early specimens, take a nail keg, saw it in two, fill with rich mould, and let a single tomato grow in each half, under cover, until the season is sufficiently advanced to set the plants out in the open air, and then by removing the hoops and bottom from the keg, the plants will grow, without even showing that they have been transplanted. A dozen such plants set out in good soil will furnish tomatoes enough for a small family, more than a month in advance of the "season."—Journal of the Farm.

Recipes.

Hickory Nut Cake.—One pound of sugar, one of hickory nut kernels, and the whites of six eggs.

Gingernuts.—Three pounds of flour, one of butter, one of sugar, one pint of molasses, and one-fourth of a pound of ginger.

Cookies.—One teacupful of butter, two of sugar, one of milk, two-thirds of a teaspoonful of soda, just enough flour to roll out thin. Bake a light brown.

To Stop a leak.—Beat yellow soap and whiting, with a little water, into a thick paste. Rub this over the part where the leakage is, and it will be instantly stopped.

Mock Mince-pie.—One cup of sugar one of molasses, one of raisins chopped, one of vinegar, one of water, two crackers rolled fine, spice to taste.—Bake with upper and under crusts.

Apea Cake.—One pound of flour, half a pound of butter, same of sugar, cinnamon and essence of lemon to your taste. Beat the butter and sugar, together like pound cake. Bake in a moderate oven.

Fruit Cake.—One pound of sugar, one of butter, one of flour, twelve eggs, two pound of currants, one of citron, one gill of brandy, one of wine, one tablespoonful of cinnamon, and one of ground mace.

Silver Cake.—One pound of sugar, one cup of butter, the whites of three eggs beaten to a froth, one cup of thick milk, four cups of flour, one teaspoonful of cream of tartar, one teaspoonful of saleratus.

Blistered Hands and Feet.—The speediest remedy is to light a tallow candle and let the melted tallow drop in cold water, then mix the tallow in strong spirits and rub it thoroughly into the palms and soles. This is both a preventive and cure.

Corn Pound Cake.—One pound of sugar, half pound of butter, one pound of corn meal, five eggs, one teaspoonful of saleratus, one teacup of cream or good rich milk. Take out a handful of the corn meal, put in one handful of wheat flour. Flavor to your taste.

For Graham Bread.—Mix two quarts of Graham flour, one cup of molasses, one of yeast, one pint of water, a little salt, and let it rise over night; then put in pans, and let it rise another hour; bake one hour and a-half in a slow oven.

Rich Cream Cake.—One half pound butter, three quarter pounds sugar, two eggs, beat the whites and yolks separately, stir into the cake, and add one wine glass full of brandy, one nutmeg, half pound flour. Before baking add half pint thick cream and one pound of raisins.

The Bedford Gazette.

Thursday Morning April 14, 1870.

NOT EXACTLY.

The Inquirer of last week announces the adoption of the Fifteenth Amendment, with the statement that the Democrats have practically abandoned their opposition to that iniquitous measure and are now paying court to the negro. It declares that the Democracy "are on the track of the colored voters with all their hollow arguments and wicked machinations in the hope of beguiling them into the support of their tickets."

We are gratified to know that the Inquirer has plucked up courage to inform its readers that the Fifteenth Amendment has become "a part of the Constitution," and that the citizenship of the colored man has been officially proclaimed." The disbelieving Radicals of Bedford county will hardly continue to dispute a fact acknowledged by their own organ. They will now be compelled to confess that their party have forced NEGRO SUFFRAGE upon the country without giving the people an opportunity to vote upon the question, and that they have been deliberately and audaciously cheated by their leaders who pledged themselves in their platform, in the press and from the stump, that the question of suffrage should remain under the control of the people of the States.

But the Inquirer does not speak by the book when it states that the Democrats are courting the negro vote. Its object in making this false assertion is quite transparent. It thinks to make Democrats as odious and contemptible in the sight of decent white men as those of its own party who have enfranchised the black man in order to obtain his vote. The Democratic party presents its principles before the whole world, and those who accept them it will in no wise cast out. But it does not run after any particular class of persons, much less does it propose to proselyte Africa, for that would be poaching on the manor of the Radicals. The African vote, of course, belongs to the so-called Republican party. The leaders of that organization have bought it and paid for it, and it is, therefore, their property. The slave holder's claim to the service of the black man was canceled by the war, but the right of the Radical politician to his vote has just accrued.—The Negro is henceforward to be a political slave, the bondman of the unscrupulous demagogues who have purchased him with a fraud and who mean to perpetuate their ownership by falsehood. The servitude from which he has been emancipated, was that of the body; the service which the Radical politicians claim from him, enslaves his soul. The Democrats do not choose to meddle with the property of their opponents. They say to the "colored voters," Servants, obey your masters! But the Democratic appeal is to the White Men who have hitherto acted with the Radicals. Their leaders have deceived and betrayed them. They owe no longer any fealty to a party whose controlling spirits make light of their pledges to the people and who esteem themselves no better than negroes.—They cannot be faithful to their own promises, made a hundred times over to their friends and neighbors, if they follow the false guides of their party in this African experiment. Their place, in future, is with the party which would preserve the ballot from degradation and which aims to restore to the States and the people the right of self-government basely surrendered by the Fifteenth Amendment. No matter as to names. "What's in a name? A rose by any other name would smell as sweet." All who are agreed that THE PEOPLE must recover their lost rights, can and should act together, without regard to former political affiliations. White Republicans, what answer?

If any "colored voter" should cast his ballot for the Democratic candidates, it will not be because Democrats have purchased him by supporting the Fifteenth Amendment fraud, but for the reason that the Democratic party insists that the working-man shall not pay an exorbitant tax in the shape of a high tariff on the iron and steel of which his plough, his axe, his hoe, his hammer and his working tools generally are made, on the salt which seasons his food, on the cottons and woollens which clothe his body, and on the fuel which keeps his family from freezing in winter.

COURAGE, friends of the Right! A party strong enough to win a victory in the Yankee State of Connecticut, in spite of the power of the Federal Administration, is destined yet to rule this country. There is life in the old land yet!

Connecticut, the land of steady habits, pronounces for the Democracy and against the humbug administration of Grant.

First Response to Grant's Message.

CONNECTICUT DISSENTS!

HER PEOPLE INDIGNANTLY REPUDIATE THE INFAMOUS AND FRAUDULENT NEGRO AMENDMENT.

They Proclaim in Favor of a White Man's Government.

THE WHOLE DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET ELECTED.

Connecticut answers the grandiloquent electioneering proclamation of President Grant announcing the so-called adoption of the Fifteenth Amendment, with a splendid democratic victory. Hon. James E. English is elected Governor by upwards of eight hundred majority, and the entire democratic State ticket is carried by about the same vote. Notwithstanding the fact that the old rotten-borough system by which a town of two hundred inhabitants elects as many representatives as a city of fifty thousand, still obtains in Connecticut, the legislature is close, with the chances in favor of a democratic majority in the Senate.—The republican journals apologetically attribute this defeat of their party to a stress of weather. The storm, they say, prevented their voters from going to the election. Of course the democrats did not mind the storm. Having an abiding faith in the justice of their cause, they turned out, voted and triumphed, in spite of wind and weather. But, we apprehend that the unpropitious elements which scattered and destroyed the radical party in Connecticut, were not of the air, but a premonitory wind from the political sky, the precursor of the coming storm which will sweep out of existence sham republicanism and all its attendant humbugs. It will not do to make the robin snow which fell in Connecticut on the 4th inst., an excuse for this defeat. The usurpation of the people's rights by the miserable oligarchy which rules at Washington, the destruction of the Constitution, the degradation of the elective franchise, the surrender of the Federal Administration to the Money Power, the continuance of an oppressive and odious system of taxation, these are the very natural causes of the political storm before which the republican party must inevitably succumb. The result in Connecticut is but the first faint muttering of the approaching thunder. Wait a little longer and the forked lightnings will flash from the zenith and the deep diapason of the great revolution will boom through the air from one end of the continent to the other.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

We call the attention of the Democrats of the several election districts of the county, to the notice published by the County Committee, in another column, appointing an election for delegates to a County Convention called for the purpose of revising the rules governing the party. It is hoped that every district will send a delegate. No matter to what conclusion the Convention may come in reference to the so-called "Crawford County System," at present in vogue, it is absolutely necessary that something should be done to prevent a recurrence of the scenes of the last nominating canvass. It is, therefore, important that the wisest and most prudent men be selected as delegates, men who have at heart the good of the party, and who do not represent merely their own selfish interests or the schemes of office-seeking politicians. Let us have a council of clear heads and honest hearts, let us have deliberate and careful action, and let us have justice done to the Democrats of each and every district. We make no doubt that a plan will be adopted by the Convention which will be satisfactory to all concerned.

DOWN WITH THE TAXES.—Will Congress, asks the Boston Journal, a republican journal, hear the demand coming up from all parts of the country for a reduction of taxation and a removal of the burdens which are prostrating business? The business men of the country, without distinction of trade or politics, demand it. They have carried the burden willingly while it was necessary, and would do it again if the exigencies of the government demanded it. No sane man can believe that the wants of the country justify such an enormous taxation as is now imposed. The New York Sun, in noticing Senator Sherman's design to continue the income tax at a reduced rate, says:

"The people will object to this, because it is a violation of the public faith. When the income tax was originally levied amid the extremest pressure of the war, Congress solemnly pledged the faith of the government that it should cease with 1870. That is as binding a promise as that on the face of the government bonds. It is a contract with the people, and cannot be repudiated without dishonor."

THE so called Republican party is getting rather mixed, at least in color. Who would be a member of mongrel concern?

A JEWELL in an Ethiop's ear—the Radical candidate for Governor in Connecticut pendant from the Fifteenth Amendment.

GOVERNOR GEARY has signed a "bill" which never passed either branch of the legislature. It is a bill in reference to the city of Philadelphia.—The Governor, on discovering the fraud, immediately sent a message to the legislature asking that the error should be corrected. But that immaculate body refused to take any action in regard to the matter.

White voters and black,
Brown voters and bay,
Mingle, mingle, mingle,
You that mingle may!

Which is not Shakespearen, but is the burden of the song of the Mongrel Party at present.

THE Harrisburg Telegraph (Radical) denounces the late legislature in unmeasured terms. It declares that the "Republican" party cannot carry such a load and win in the next political race.

SENATOR YATES has been quite ill. His friends told him all along that the kind of whisky he was drinking so lavishly would ultimately make him sick.

SPRAGUE'S FARM, otherwise known as the State of Rhode Island, has elected the Radical ticket as usual.

ROOSTING LOWER—the Black Man's Party since the Connecticut election.

THE question now is—Are you White or Mongrel?

Official Insolence Etc.

It is stated that a bill has been prepared for presentation to Congress, amongst the provisions of which is the following:

"That the President and Cabinet ministers shall reside at the seat of Government, and not leave the same for more than two weeks at a time without the consent of Congress; that the departments shall be kept open from 9 a. m. till 3 p. m., and during all this time shall be accessible to the people in person or by attorney, who shall be entitled to courteous treatment, and to have their statements considered; and that a complaint-book shall be kept in a conspicuous position near the door of the apartment, wherein any person aggrieved may enter any matter of complaint."

Any one who has had occasion to transact business with almost any of the departments at Washington, knows that the insolence of the heads of the departments, as well as that of the subordinates has been almost unbearable. These officials, both great and small, assume an air of arrogance that is as disgusting as it is inexcusable. Nothing short of being on the "right side," or having in possession indorsements and recommendations that dare not be disregarded, secures a citizen anything like proper respect at the hands of these servants (?) of the public. It is to be hoped that the bill referred to will become a law, and that these abuses, which have been so flagrant as to be absolutely intolerable, be reformed.

There is another feature of the bill which is to be commended. It is that which requires the President and his Cabinet ministers to obtain leave of Congress when they desire to absent themselves from their posts of duty for a longer period than two weeks. Last summer the Government was literally a traveling establishment. The President was here; the Vice President in California; the Secretary of the State there; the Secretary of the Treasury anywhere but in Washington; the Secretary of the Navy yachting it in Government vessels, and the balance of the heads of departments scattered generally over the land. To such an extent was this roaming spirit carried by the dignitaries that at one time not single Cabinet officer was to be found within a hundred miles of the Capital. The newspapers of the country, without distinction of party, protested against these extraordinary proceedings; but it was like pouring water upon a duck's back. The protests were unheeded, and the Government wandered where it listed.—Herald.

"PARIS BY SUNLIGHT AND GASLIGHT."—A work descriptive of the Mysteries and Miseries, the Virtues, Vices, Splendors, and Crimes of the City of Paris.—By James D. McCabe Jr. National Publishing Co., Philadelphia.

The eagerness with which all Americans who can spare the time and means, rush off to Paris every year, has become almost a national characteristic. Indeed, this is not to be wondered at, for all places in the world, Paris offers the greatest attractions to the lover of pleasure, and what people love pleasure so well as our own countrymen? This most interesting of cities displays to the novice its enchantments in two aspects so widely different, that the author shows us Paris in two different phases—"By Sunlight" and "By Gaslight." The quantity of serious and veritable history presented by this work, as connected with the various objects of interest in Paris, is immense. That of the Palaces and other public buildings is exhaustive and complete. The reader is made acquainted with all the proud triumphal monuments of the past and present eras. He is led through the grandest galleries of art, and the history and descriptions of the leading objects of sculpture and painting, are laid before him. He is introduced into the family of the Emperor, and carried through every phase of Parisian social life.—He is led up to the garrets of the pretty Grisettes, and listens to the stories of their loves; and is made a confidant in the secret intrigues of the ladies of rank. He visits the Queens of the Demi monde in their gorgeous houses, and counts their lovers by their jewels. He luxuriates in the delicacies of French cooking and Parisian drinks, and smokes his Cigarette at night on the glittering Boulevard. He has the curtain drawn back and is shown the dark mysteries, the rogueries, villanies, and the frightful crimes of the City. He is amused, instructed, startled, thrilled, horrified by turns, and when he lays the book aside, finds it hard to believe that he has not actually seen Paris for himself, and participated, in person, in the scenes of which he has been reading. The book is illustrated with 150 splendid engravings, made in Paris, by the best artists of France, under the personal supervision of the author. It is sold only by subscription.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, April 6.

In the United States Senate, yesterday, the joint resolution directing inquiry into the loss of the Oneida by the collision with the Bombay was passed. A debate sprang up on a resolution of Mr. Cameron to prepare some appropriate testimonial to the Pennsylvania and Massachusetts regiments which marched through Baltimore in 1861 to the defense of the capital. Several Senators advanced the claims of regiments from their respective States for similar testimonials, and in the debate Mr. Conkling reminded Mr. Cameron of the services of the New York troops in saving Pennsylvania. Mr. Cameron replied spitefully that "the less Mr. Conkling said on the subject the better it would be for his own sake." The subject was referred to the Military Committee.—The Senate took up the Georgia bill, and listened to speeches from Mr. Sumner and Mr. Carpenter. The House of Representatives devoted nearly all the session to the paragraph of the Tariff bill on sugar. The paragraph on liquors was also nearly finished.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 7.

In the United States Senate, yesterday, the morning hour was consumed with the consideration of the Deficiency Appropriation bill. Among the items of the bill which were accepted, were those for the sea wall and revenue dock at the New York Battery, $100,000; and for the New York Post-office and Custom-house, $800,000, instead of the $400,000 agreed upon by the House. The bill as amended was finally passed. Mr. Sherman attempted to get up the Income Tax bill, but failed. In consequence of the funeral of General Thomas and the absence of many Senators, the Georgia bill was postponed until Tuesday next, and the Senate adjourned. In the House of Representatives there was a lively time over a personal explanation made by Fernando Wood, in which he managed to introduce a series of damaging charges against the Pecksniffian General, O. O. Howard. In substance, he charged that Howard, as Chief of the Freedmen's Bureau, swindled the government out of a large amount of money and discharged the duties of his office with negligence and extravagance. Mr. Wood's accusations produced wrath and consternation among the Radicals and a sharp passage between him and Ben Butler, but the House was obliged to consent to a motion to refer the matter to the Committee on Education and Labor for investigation. There is at last some hope that the true character of General Howard will be exposed. The House went into Committee on the Tariff, and the paragraph on cigars was considered.

WASHINGTON, April 8, 1870.

In the United States Senate, yesterday, one of the huge railroad and land jobs came up, and was debated by the new Senator from Iowa, Mr. Howell, and Mr. Stewart, of Nevada. The former took strong grounds against this and similar swindles, and warned his Radical companions of the rising wrath of the people. Mr. Sherman's joint resolution declaratory of the meaning of the law relating to the income tax was discussed and finally passed. In the House of Representatives, Ben Butler attempted to introduce a joint resolution to annex San Domingo, but Mr. Brooks, of New York, objected. The resolution provides for annexation, and appropriates $1,362,770 in coin to pay off the debt of the black republic. It will come up again on Monday, under the rule, but will undoubtedly be defeated. The House in Committee of the Whole considered the cigar and cotton paragraphs of the Tariff bill. The latter was stricken out, leaving the duty on cigars the same as under the existing law.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 9.

After a short session yesterday the United States Senate adjourned out of respect to the memory of General Thomas. Nothing of importance was transacted, but during a discussion of the Indian treaties Mr. Drake allowed himself to get furiously angry with his brother radical, Mr. Sumner, and to spurn the base insinuations of that great man. There was no fight. The House was engaged in Committee on the Tariff bill, and went through cottons and wools. Only eight of the fifty pages of the bill have yet been disposed of, and pig-iron has not yet been reached.

Effects of the Famine in Jerusalem.

A letter has been received in London from the Angelican Bishop of Jerusalem, which corroborates the statement made on this painful subject by Sir Moses Montefiore. The Bishop in his letter says: A small donkey's load of water costs 6d. to the poor Jew, whose family income is 1s. 1d. per week. Many Moslems and nominal Christians are in the same position. What is most dreadful to contemplate is the fact that the springs near Jerusalem are drying up. But there is another more terrible calamity still. The locusts are spread over the mountains of Judah and Samaria, in the valley of Jordan, and in the plain of Sharon and Galilee, having come to lay their eggs, which will be hatched before the harvest; and as the Arabs say that each couple lays two hundred eggs, countless millions will appear, eating every green thing, poisoning the ground, and thus preventing grass growing for the cattle.

A daily bath for the whole body is not too much. Health may not absolutely require this, but there are few persons who would not be benefitted by a complete washing of the skin, from head to foot, at least once every day. The feet need washing as much as the head, as perspiration upon them is very abundant. Feet that are cased in wool and leather are not excepted from this necessity of cleansing. Digestion is freer when water is applied above the organs of digestion; and the washing of the chest helps one to breathe more freely. Bathing makes the limbs supple, and it opens the muscles to breathe from, if such an unscientific statement may be permitted. All will agree that in the second month of summer a daily bath is a luxury not to be omitted, but in winter it is hardly less necessary, and the recreation which follows makes it a luxury even in the most inclement season.

NEWS ITEMS.

The news from Spain is important. The insurrection at Barcelona has not been suppressed, as the government would have the world believe. The rioters have congregated a short distance from the city, and have again thrown up barricades. The Captain-General finds the enemy so formidable that he has telegraphed the government for more troops, and accordingly General Prim has despatched General Baldrick to the scene to take command of the national troops. The discontent is apparent also at Seville. On Wednesday men from the neighboring villages entered the city with flying banners and shouts of "Viva republica" and "Down with the conscription." The government telegram says that they were disarmed and arrested. The people surrounded the prisoners and seemed disposed to rescue them, but no further disturbances occurred.

It is said that the women jurors of Wyoming during the long Howie murder trial were taken with their male companions to a hotel every night, and there placed in separate but adjoining apartments to pass the night. And here, every morning, during the trial, upon arising from their beds, these ladies kneeled together, and asked wisdom of God to enable them to properly and wisely discharge their new duties. The men, meantime, were drinking whisky and playing bluff.

The Providence Herald says, a minister in Athol, Mass., a few days since, married a young man from Orange to a little girl of twelve, at the command of the child's mother, who accompanied them. The clergyman was very unwilling to perform the ceremony, but the mother insisted upon it, saying that the husband should have no control over his child wife until she was seventeen, and that all the preliminary legal proceedings had been complied with.

An organization of juvenile robbers has been broken up at Altoona, Henry county, Ill. They had their regular passwords, &c., and had accumulated quite a stock of plunder. Their leader was thirteen years old, and was an insatiable reader of dime novels.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.

At a meeting of the Democratic County Committee, held in Bedford, on Monday, Feb. 14th, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Committee that a County Convention should be called for the purpose of taking into consideration the propriety of altering and revising the rules of the Democratic party of Bedford county governing nominations.

Resolved, That such Convention is hereby called to meet at the Court House, in Bedford, on TUESDAY EVENING, March 1, (Special Court) and that each election district shall be entitled to one delegate in said Convention.

In pursuance of said resolutions a Convention composed of prominent Democrats from a large majority of districts met at the Court House, in Bedford, and adopted the following:

Resolved, That the Rules of the Democratic party adopted in the year 1869, be suspended for the present and that a county convention to consist of one delegate from each election district be called to meet at the Court house in Bedford, on Tuesday evening of April court, for the purpose of determining the propriety of changing the rules at present governing the party.

Resolved, That the chairman of the Democratic County Committee is hereby instructed to give notice through the columns of the Bedford GAZETTE that an election will be held to elect delegates to said Convention, in the several districts of the county, on Saturday, the 23d day of April, 1870.

By authority of the above resolutions, a Democratic County Convention is called to assemble at the Court House, in Bedford, on Tuesday evening, April 26th (Court week), to consist of one delegate from each election district in the county, and the Vigilance Committees of the respective townships are required to hold an election in their said districts, for the election of one delegate, for the purpose aforesaid, on SATURDAY, APRIL 23d, 1870, between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

By order of the Dem. Co. Com.,
E. F. KERR, Ch'n.

RETURNED.—The Legislature having adjourned, J. H. Longenecker, Esq., one of the Representatives from this district, has returned, looking as though legislative labors agreed with him. Although a political opponent we have always found Mr. Longenecker a fair representative, and ready to carry out the wishes of his constituents, regardless of politics.

Sore Throat, Cough, Cold, and similar troubles, if suffered to progress, result in serious pulmonary affections, often incurable. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" reach directly the seat of the disease, and give them almost instant relief. They have been thoroughly tested, and maintain the good reputation they have justly acquired. As there are imitations, be sure to obtain the genuine.

REPEAL OF THE SCALP LAW.—Some weeks ago we told our readers that the scalp law had been repealed. That was a mistake and we were as badly sold as our readers. The repealing act has however since passed both branches of the legislature and been signed by the Governor. We predict that skunks will be far less numerous in this county since no premium is offered for their highly perfumed scalps.

"A HORRIBLE SUSPICION."—It has lately come to light that some ingenious person has discovered a method of extracting a kind of yellow grease resembling butter in appearance from London mud. This stuff is mysteriously shipped off to Holland, and a horrible suspicion has arisen among London householders that it returns to them in the shape of Dutch Butter so largely consumed in their kitchens.

INFANTICIDE.—Somerset county has a case of infanticide. A party of ladies and gentlemen who were riding in a boat in the North Fork, at Ursina, discovered the body of a child in the water. It was brought to shore and found to be cut and lacerated with a knife in a most brutal manner, both ears being cut off, the heart and intestines cut out, and gashes cut across the head and face. A jury was empaneled, and a verdict rendered that the "child met with death by unknown hands." Steps have been taken to ferret out the perpetrator of this cruel and inhuman crime.

SPILLED OUT.—A gentleman from Dutch Corner tells us a funny thing that happened last Sunday a week. A party consisting of a gentleman and two ladies were out riding in a spring wagon, on a visit to their neighbors.—On returning home, the seat on which the ladies were siting gave way and they were tilted out—luckily unhurt. The gentleman did not miss his fair companions and drove on a considerable distance before he discovered the mishap. The accident might have been serious, but it turned out to be a "good joke on Snider,"—the driver.

OUR COMMON SCHOOLS.—The six months' session of the Common Schools of this borough under the supervision of J. A Tomlinson, Principal, closed on last Friday. A session of two months will open on Monday next, 18th inst., under the control of H. G. Weimer, of Cumberland, Md., as Principal. The assistant teachers are as follows:—S. D. Middleton, Mary Holderbaum, Jennie Smith and Maggie O'Conner. Mr. Weimer, the new Principal, is known by many of our citizens, having taught several terms in this county, and for a number of years has been superintending the common schools of the city of Cumberland, and we have no doubt will render satisfaction to our people.

THE STATE LICENSE LAW.—The following bill explanatory of the State License Law, has passed the Legislature. It may be interesting to manufacturers and mechanics selling other wares than of their own manufactures:

Be it enacted, &c., That hereafter manufacturers and mechanics, who shall sell goods, wares or merchandize, other than their own manufacture, not exceeding the sum or value of five hundred dollars per annum, shall not be classified or required to pay any annual tax or license fee; but if such sales shall exceed the sum or value of five hundred dollars per annum as aforesaid, they shall be classified in the same manner, and required to pay the same annual tax as is now required to be paid by dealers in foreign merchandise.

PASSAGE OF THE POOR HOUSE BILL.—The Poor House Bill which we published two weeks ago passed both branches of the legislature with some slight amendments and has no doubt become a law by receiving the signature of the Governer. The amendments are briefly these: That the Commissioners—the number to be three—shall be appointed by the Court of Common Pleas; That the Commissioners shall be sworn; that the County Commissioners shall only pay over money for building purposes on drafts or orders signed by at least two of the Commissioners appointed as aforesaid; that in case a majority of the votes cast are in favor of retaining the present Poor House property, then the said Commissioners shall proceed at once to erect suitable buildings thereon.

We trust that this act will finally dispose of the vexed Poor House question, and that we will before long be able to chronicle the fact that our county is in possession of buildings suitable for the proper keeping and maintenance of the poor.

SHOOTING AFFRAY.—On Thursday afternoon of last week while taking our office list to the post office we saw a somewhat excited crowd pass rapidly up railroad avenue. Following them we learned that an individual named Claar, hailing from Bedford county, had got into a difficulty with a one legged man named Champinour. It seems that Claar's property was recently destroyed by fire, at least such is alleged to be the case, and he is now traveling the country endeavoring to procure funds from the benevolently disposed to aid in the erection of a new home. Meeting Champinour in a bar-room Claar, asked him for some help and was refused with remarks more forcible than elegant. It is said by some that Claar in the excitement of the moment struck Champinour. Others deny this. Be this as it may, Champinour fired two shots from his revolver at Claar, neither of which took effect. After this the stranger was knocked down by some friend of Champinour's.

This is what we have been able to glean from the testimony of those who witnessed the affray. As how nearly correct it may be, we do not pretend to say. The only glimpse of Claar that we caught was when he entered the Exchange hotel, grotesquely attired, with a rifle over his shoulder, and apparently well armed otherwise. He did not appear to have suffered any serious injury. No arests were made.

Since the above was written we lear that the destroyed property belonged to Claar's father, he being unmarried. He was also treated most infamously by the brutal friends of Champinour, having been assailed by nearly a dozen of them at once.—Altoona Sun.

READ! READ!! READ!!!

MIDDLETON'S

ONDERFUL PAIN CURE

A sure remedy for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Drawing Pains, Sprains, Bruises, Stiffness, of the Joints and all similar diseases.

This wonderful remedy is composed entirely of vegetable ingredients. There are no injurious substances used in its manufacture.

For assurance of its excellent properties, read the following certificates:

BEDFORD, May 8, 1869.

I take great pleasure in giving my testimony to the value of "Middleton's Wonderful Pain Cure." I have been a martyr to Rheumatism. For two months previous to Feb. 24th, last, I was suffering intensely with pain so severe, that during all that time I had not one night of comfortable sleep. I could not put my hands to my face, could not comb my own hair, nor feed myself; but after having the Pain Cure applied once, I found relief enough to give me comfortable sleep, and with its steady use, I continued to get better, and now at the present writing, I am free from its first application, I have regained the daily free use of my hands, sleep well and am restored to business. It has done me more good than all other medicines I have ever used, viz., water, and I cheerfully give this certificate of its value.

ELI M. FISHER.

BEDFORD, April 14, 1869.

Mr. W. W. Middleton,

This is to certify that I was taken with Rheumatism, in my right shoulder, on the evening of the 8th inst., so that I was unable to raise my hand to my face. I got some of your Pain Cure and applied it twice, and was entirely relieved. I would recommend to every one who suffers with Rheumatism to give it a trial and be cured.

Yours &c., A. F. MILLER.

BEDFORD, May 17, 1869.

Mr. Middleton,

Dear Sir:—I have used several bottles of your medicine in my family, and find it to be all you claim for it. Yours, truly,

JOHN HAFER.

BEDFORD, May 13, 1869.

This is to certify that I have used "Middleton's Pain Cure," for Rheumatism, and was very much benefited by it. JOHN HARRIS.

BEDFORD, May 18, 1869.

This is to certify that I have used Middleton's Liniment, for the Rheumatism which I had in my right shoulder so bad that I could not get my hand to my head without great pain, and after a few applications was entirely relieved.

L. F. DART.

BEDFORD, May 1, 1869.

Mr. Middleton,

Dear Sir:—Mrs. Bowser was in much suffering for three or four weeks with Rheumatism, and got a bottle of your Pain Cure, and the first night I applied it it eased the pain; and after keeping on using it for two weeks, she was restored to health. I feel it to be my duty, as it is a pleasure, to write this recommendation for the benefit of others.

JACOB BOWSER

BEDFORD, May 16 1869.

Mr. W. W. Middleton:

Sir—I procured a bottle of your Liniment for Rheumatism, and it gives me great pleasure in stating that after using it for two days, my rheumatism was completely relieved. My sister was suffering, at the same time, with Inflamatory Rheumatism in her right hand and wrist—after using it for several days she was relieved. I consider it the best remedy I ever heard of.

JOHN KEEFE

BEDFORD, May 24, 1869.

This is to certify that I have used one bottle of Middleton's Liniment for Rheumatism, and think it a good cure, and would recommend it to all persons that are afflicted with the above disease.

AUGUSTUS CARVER.

BEDFORD, May 26, 1869.

Mr. Middleton:

Sir—I procured one bottle of your medicine and used one-half of it for Rheumatism, which effected a permanent cure up to this time. I cannot hesitate in saying that it is the best remedy I ever used. A. B. CARN.

This excellent PAIN CURE is prepared only by W. W. MIDDLETON, Bedford, Pa., to whom all orders for the medicine should be addressed.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this Sarsaparilla: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other erruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and that fearful train of horrors afflictions of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for sanating these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matter in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are languid and listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine

Perhaps no one Medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but effectual purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For DYSPEPSIA or INDIGESTION, LISTLESSNESS, LANGUOR and LOSS of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For LIVER COMPLAINT and its various symptoms, BILLIOUS HEADACHE, SICK HEADACHE, JAUNDICE or GREEN SICKNESS, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For DYSENTERY or DIARRHŒA, but one mild dose is generally required.

For RHEUMATISM, GOUT, GRAVEL, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK and LOINS, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For DROPSY and DROPSICAL SWELLINGS they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For SUPPRESSION a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a DINNER PILL, take one or two pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attack of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometime subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

AYER'S AGUE CURE,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in no wise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or traveling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

HAIR DRESSING,

THE ONLY RELIABLE CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA IN THE KNOWN WORLD.

Dr. Wishart's Great American Dyspepsia Pills and Pine Tree Tar Cordial are a positive and infallable cure for Dyspepsia in its most aggravated form and no matter of how long standing. They penetrate the secret abodes of this terrible disease, and exterminate toit, root and branch, forever.

They alleviate more agony and silent suffering than tongue can tell.

They are noted for curing the most desperate and hopeless cases, when every known means fail to afford relief.

No form of Dyspepsia or Indigestion can resist their penetrating power.

DR. WISHART'S
PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL.

It is the vital principle of the Pine Tree obtained by a peculiar process in the distillation of the tar, by which its highest medical properties are retained. It invigorates the digestive organs and restores the appetite. It strengthens the debilitated system. It purifies and enriches the blood, and expels from the system the corruption which scrofula breeds on the lungs. It dissolves the mucus or phlegm which stops the air passages of the lungs. Its healing principle acts upon the irritated surface of the lungs and throat, penetrating to each diseased part, relieving pain and subduing inflammation. It is the result of years of study and experiment, and it is offered to the afflicted with positive assurance of its power to cure the following diseases if the patient has not too long delayed a resort to the means of cure:

Consumption of the Lungs, Cough, Sore Throat and Breast, Bronchitis, Liver Complaint, Blind and Bleeding Piles, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Diptheria, &c.

A medical expert, holding honorable collegiate diplomas, devotes his entire time to the examination of patients at the office parlors. Associated with him are three consulting physicians of acknowledged eminence, whose services are given to the public free of charge.

This opportunity is offered by no other institution in the country.

Our friends will find at Mr. Waters' store the very best assortment of Pianos, Melodeons and Organs to be found in the United States.—Graham's Magazine.

MUSICAL DOINGS.—Since Mr. Waters gave up publishing sheet music, he has devoted his whole capital and attention to the manufacture and sale of Pianos and Melodeons. He has just issued a catalogue of his new instruments, giving a new scale of prices, which shows a marked reduction from former rates, and his Pianos have recently been awarded the First Premium at several Fairs. Many people of the present day, who are attracted, if not confused, with the flaming advertisements of rival piano houses, probably overlook the modest manufacturer like Mr. Waters; but we happen to know that his instruments earned him a good reputation long before Expositions and "honors" connected therewith were ever thought of; indeed, we have one of Mr. Waters' Pianofortes now in our residence (where it has stood for many years,) of which any manufacturer in the world might well be proud. We have always been delighted with it as a sweet-toned and powerful instrument, and there is no doubt of its durability; more than this, some of the best amateur player in the city, as well as several celebrated pianistes have performed on the same piano, and all pronounce it a superior and first-class instrument. Stronger endorsement we could not give.—Home Journal. jan15,'69.

THE WEEKLY WORLD,

a large quarto sheet, printed throughout in large type and published every Wednesday morning, has now the largest circulation of any weekly newspaper in the United States, with possibly, a single exception. Among its prominent features are:

1. Its very full and accurate market reports, embracing the Live Stock markets of New York, Albany, Cambridge, and Philadelphia; and New York Country Produce Market, and General Produce Markets of the country; and full reports of the New York Money Market. Each of the reports are complied with great care, and contain the latest quotations that can be obtained up to the time of putting the paper to press.
2. Its Agricultural Department, which contains each week articles on practical and scientific farming that are of great value to American farmers. A special feature of this department is a weekly summary of the condition of the Hop Markets at home and abroad.
3. A very full report of the proceedings of the Farmers' Club of the American Institute is printed in each issue of the Weekly World, the day after the meeting of the Club. By this arrangement the report appears in the Weekly World one week in advance of its publication in any other weekly paper.
4. A portion of the Weekly World is reserved for family reading matter, including original and selected stories, poems, waifs of humor, and extracts from books and periodicals.—Particular attention will be given to this department during the year 1870.
5. A special feature of the Weekly World is a carefully complied summary of the news of each week. It is made so complete that no one who reads it can fail of being well posted on all the important news of the day.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY WORLD,

published Tuesday and Friday, is a large quarto sheet, containing all the news published in the Daily World, with the exception of such local reports as may be of no interest to non-residents of New York City. Its market reports are as full as those of the Daily edition, and it contains, besides interesting literary matter, on Friday of each week a full report of the Farmers' Club.

THE DAILY WORLD

contains all the news of the day that can be obtained by mail and telegraph from all parts of the world, and the thorough discussions of all topics of interest.

THE WORLD ALMANAC FOR 1870.

"THE WORLD ALMANAC" for 1870 will contain a vast quantity of political information of use to every voter, and of such a character as can be obtained in no other publication. In it will be printed full official returns of every election held in 1869; the vote of New York State by election districts, and Connecticut by towns; the names and dates of each candidate for each branch of the New York Legislature; list of members of the United States Senate and House of Representatives; obituary record and list of important events during the past year. As a compact political manual it will have no equal.
